

Student Booklet

WebQuest - educaloi.qc.ca

ēducaloi

INFORMATION EMPOWERS

WebQuest

educaloi.qc.ca

Student
Booklet

Part 1	p. 2
Part 2 - Situation 1	p. 5
Part 2 - Situation 2	p. 6
Part 2 - Situation 3	p. 7
Part 2 - Situation 4	p. 8
Part 2 - Situation 5	p. 10

Instructions:

Part 1

This WebQuest is like a scavenger hunt. Find the answers in the Youth Zone of educaloi.qc.ca.

1. Are there limits to what you are allowed to say on the Internet?

If so, what are they?

2. Is it a crime to lie to the police?

3. Name five legal careers.

4. What rules must you follow when you're in a courtroom?

5. Can you stop going to school on your 16th birthday?

6. Name four punishments that are forbidden.

7. How old must you be to use a tanning salon?

8. If you're under 18, can you sign a cellphone contract without a parent's signature?

9. Can teens under 18 be sent to adult prisons?

10. At what age can you start babysitting?

11. Until what age can your parents punish you?

12. Give an example of when cyberbullying is a crime.

13. When parents are separated, who decides small issues (e.g., your bedtime)?

Who decides major issues (e.g., health care)?

14. Name three ways a youth (criminal) record can affect your life.

15. At what age can you drink in a park?

Situation 1:

Part 2

A police officer can ask for your name, address and date of birth.
For each scenario below, state whether you must give the information to the police officer.

1. You are driving a scooter and did nothing wrong.
Yes _____ No _____
2. You hit someone with your car.
Yes _____ No _____
3. The officer thinks you stole something, but you did not.
Yes _____ No _____
4. You resemble someone who escaped from prison, but the officers did not tell you this.
Yes _____ No _____
5. You resemble someone who stole a car and was caught on camera, and the officers tell you this.
Yes _____ No _____

Situation 2:

You change schools and your new school asks you to remove your piercings.

1. Do you have to follow their rules?

Yes _____ No _____

2. What are possible consequences if you do not follow the rules?

Situation 3:

You are pregnant. For each statement, say whether it is true or false.

1. You need your parents' permission to get an abortion if you're under 14.
True _____ False _____
2. The child's father can prevent you from having an abortion.
True _____ False _____
3. You must pay for an abortion.
True _____ False _____
4. If you are between 14 and 18 and must stay more than 12 hours in the hospital for the abortion, your parents will be notified.
True _____ False _____

Situation 4:

You finally find a job after looking for a month!

1. You work in a store that requires you to wear the clothes they sell. Who pays for the clothes?
-

2. Circle the statement that is true.
 - a. If you are 13, the law lets employers pay you less than if you are 15.
 - b. If you are 13, you are not allowed to work.
 - c. If you are 13, you must have your parents' permission to get a job.
 - d. If you are 13, you can only work on weekends, but at 15 you can work evenings too.

3. What is the minimum an employer can pay you for these jobs:
- a. clerk at a gas station

 - b. server at a restaurant

 - c. babysitter

 - d. strawberry picker

4. At what age can you work until 11 p.m.? Circle the correct answer(s).
- a. 13 years old
 - b. 15 years old
 - c. 16 years old
 - d. 17 years old
 - e. 18 years old
5. You work in a hospital. You refuse to get vaccinated. What can happen? Circle the correct answer(s).
- Your boss can force you to get vaccinated.
 - Your boss can forbid you from working with some patients or in some areas of the hospital.
 - Your boss can tell you to stay home temporarily and not pay you.

Situation 5:

You have a new boyfriend or girlfriend.

1. Does your age difference matter if you want to have sex?

2. If you are married, do you still need your partner's permission for sexual activity?

3. Once you've given your permission for sexual activity, can you change your mind?

